

Now that summer's gone, the nights are getting cold
And I'm higher than I've ever been before
So I hit up every girl that's in my phone
And I told a couple tens they was the one

'Cause I was all alone, you see
I was all alone when you found me
I was all alone
I was all alone

Now that summer's gone, the nights are getting cold
And I'm higher than I've ever been before
So I hit up every girl that's in my phone
And I told a couple tens they was the one

'Cause I was all alone, you see
I was all alone when you found me
I was all alone (Girl, I get lonely, girl, I get lonely)
I was all alone when you found me

And now I'm sussed out that you love me
And now I'm sussed out that you've given me your love
And now I'm sussed out that you love me
Now I'm sussed out that you love me

I, I, I, I only call 'em out of
I, I, I, I only call 'em out of (Yeah)
I, I, I, I only call 'em out of
I, I, I, I only call 'em out of boredom (Yeah)
It's a habit that I do often
But it's you I want, really should ignore 'em
But I get lonely, girl, I get lonely
Wish that you would pick up
If I slide in your DM's, would you take off your knickers?
Trynna hit a home run
Never liked me in the picture
Can you get the pitcher? I'm gone off the liquor
Shots, [?]

But lovin' me is useless
That's what your friends say up in the group text
But you got a cemetery, die for me (Ghost)
All night you ain't switched up for me
I'm talking to you, candid
Sorry if I took your love for granted
But I was alone
Now I'm sussed out you respondin', yeah, yeah
Yeah, I'm sussed out that you still let me pull up
Now I'm sussed out that you want it
Now I'm sussed out that you love me
