Pain keeps slippin' in half past five
Girl, you go missing for like three, four nights
Just to fuck with me
You do that just to fuck with me, yeah, ooh, ah
You keep pretendin' everything's alright
So you only wanna change your mind
Just to fuck with me (Just to fuck with me)
Girl, you really fuck with me

I guess I got some change in store for me
'Cause I've been running 'round town too much
And they said everything always adds up
I guess I got some change in store for me (For me)
I guess I got some change in store for me (For me)

Coming my way now
Coming my way, coming my way now
Coming my way, coming my way now, now
Coming my way, coming my way now, now, now, now
Coming my way, coming my way now, now
Coming my way, coming my way now, now, now, now
Coming my way, coming my way now
Coming my way, coming my way
Coming my way, coming my way right now, now, now
Coming my way right now

I guess I got some change in store for me
'Cause I've been running round town too much
And everybody told me that it would add up
I guess I got some change in store for me (For me)
'Cause I've been running 'round town too much (Yeah)
And everybody told me that it always adds up (Up)

Guess I got some
I think I got some
Mm, I think I need some (Think I need, think I need, no, no)
Mm, think I need more (Think I need some more, yeah)
Mm, think I need you

Keep it lowkey for me now, keep it up, take it off, keep it off
Just keep it lowkey for me, yeah, yeah
Keep your Sundays holy for me
Keep that shit up, rest in peace
Keep that peace on rest for me
Layaway, layaway, Layaway, layaway, layaway

I think I got some
Waiting in store for me
I think I need a
I think I need a
Mm, I think I need you
