

Melody

Lido

I met this girl when I was two years old, or maybe even earlier
At least I'd heard of her
Her name was Melody
That's what she said to me
I said I know what you mean, 'cause I did
So when they would tell me I'm just a kid, she would say...
We got introduced by my parents, they both knew her
Started playing the drums to get close to her
I said "You exactly who I hoped you were"
Thank God I spoke to her
She just wanna express herself
There's no stores in town, she can't dress herself
So I bought a sowing machine, now she's looking like...
First off they tried to make her a problem
Now she's the reason that they like me
Because of the way that she put it
I understood it
Lost friends, she kept bringing me better ones
And I ain't tripping about it, we having fun
She introduced me to Final, played him a beat and said...
It was a beautiful thing
Gave her 8 didgets and a suitable ring
'Cause I knew she would sing, like...
We one, we don't just seem alike
I asked in the night, would she be the light
Fright, would she be the height
Tight, would she be allright
Fight, would she be the right
Flight, would she be the kite
If I treat her right
She was like...
