

Rise

Lido

Rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise

Baby, I got a little, not a lot to give
Stop one minute
I ain't even looking at the flock you're with
Why are you here?
I know I'm not living at the spot you live
But please let me slide to the crib
I know you've been feeling like it's hard to live
But I'm not him

If you know now
Let it go down tonight
And if it go down
Let it all out tonight
And if you want out
Let me slow down your life
Let me slow down your life

Do you portray anyone?
Cause I'm high all day when I'm on your love
When I'm on your love
But how do you capture the big picture?
Who do you follow when your phone dies?
Will you stick around until the sunrise?

Rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise
Would you stick around until the sunrise?

If you know now
Let it go down tonight
And if it go down
Let it all out tonight
And if you want out
Let me slow down your life
Let me slow down your life

Do you portray anyone?
Cause I'm high all day when I'm on your love
When I'm on your love
But how do you capture the big picture?
Who do you follow when your phone dies?
Will you stick around until the sunrise?

Rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise

Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise

Baby, I got a little, not a lot to give
Stop one minute
I ain't even looking at the flock you're with
Why are you here?
I know I'm not living at the spot you live
But please let me slide to the crib
I know you've been feeling like it's hard to live

Do you portray anyone?
Cause I'm high all day when I'm on your love
When I'm on your love
But how do you capture the big picture?

Will you stick around until the sunrise?

Rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise, rise
Would you stick around until the sunrise?
