

Stay With Me

Lido

I want you to stay with me tonight
I wanna get close to you
I want you to stay with me tonight
I wanna get close to you

Wha, what, what, what
Last night I got up on it
Yeah
This morning was an awkward moment but I gotta own it
You the only one I'm tryna holler on the phone with Or get up in my zone with
This is how I feel when you supposed to be my Cinderella
But the slipper don't fit
I know you got your own shit
Ironic that I know you needed space like space and I'm in it
Too much given, too much distance
Too much persisting and ruined each vision
Now I'm doing each mission, tryna eat dishes and heat kitchens
But shorty got that beef sitting, conclusive we splitting
Used to be the one she treat different
She packed her bag when I was at work, how does that work?
Said he might not have been worth it, good luck with that search
I was tryna put the ring on it, she got the Mac first
All gold and a black purse, now she dipping and that hurts
How we gonna assume and never ask first?
Threw a rose in the black hurst, told him she couldn't stay now
Happened last night, it's stuck in his head all day now

I want you to stay with me tonight
I wanna get close to you
I want you to stay with me tonight
I wanna get close to you

Yeah
Broaden these views like the wide frame on me
Looked her in the eyes, dang the vibe changed on me
Showed off as a show out
Home cooked meal on that candle lit night
And it's too cold to go out
Began to outgrow me when her heart started to grow out
Had a lot going on and I'm going on a long tangent
Passionate, on and on rantin'
A thing you used to love about me now you can't stand it
Damn it
This the type of heat you hit your mans with?
We was laid out splittin' a sandwich, you can't split
Took my heart for speedbag boxing
I had issues, she had options
But aye yo
You was right just like Meiko
Went shopping then you slipped out to San Diego
Deleting drawings on Instagram, tryna lay low

I want you to stay with me tonight
I wanna get close to you
I want you to stay with me tonight
I Tiskeno z písničky-akordy.cz wanna get close to you
