

Forsaken Me

Life In Your Way

There must be, there must be more to all of this
These dreams have been shattered, broken
My hope has been foolish
These are dark days
If only I had one promise, one moment to cling to
Will these struggles purify or be my ruin?
Overthrow, renew
I'm waiting on, I'm waiting on these promises
They were made for me, they were meant for me
And I'll persevere and hold fast hope in the face of fear
When you speak to me, will you speak to me?
Is there more? There must be more
Will your power be made, made perfect in weakness?
Purpose, drive me on, overthrow
Purpose, drive me on, purpose, renew
