

Like A River

Life In Your Way

This is a flowing river, like no other
A constant power, a spirit enduring
Running through like blood
Shining freedom, truth in a world full of deception
Embodied in passion for grace
Always growing, always full
It will run through like blood
This is for the broken, seeking out redemption,
Nothing else can heal through and through
This is for the people, singing restoration
It will run, river of life empower
It stands at the front lines declaring
Called into being free, pouring out and overflowing-alive
Flowing like water, streams of living water
Putting out deadly fires
