

Words can change, feelings left aside
And if these arms could hold you
They would hold you tight
Something sure extraordinary has gone away
If you know what's good for you
You'll turn and walk away

So put your lips to mine
Say your last goodbyes
It's time for me to leave
So hold me one last time
And I'll return some day
In a song or in a dream
Just to let you know everything is fine

I'm sorry for the ways and what I've done to you
Beating hearts look down on this
And yet I wrote I'm not the man you need to be Free to wear this ecstasy
Catch the way from fantasy
So take my dreams and throw them all away

So put your lips to mine
Say your last goodbyes
It's time for me to leave
So hold me one last time
And I'll return some day
In a song or in a dream
Just to let you know everything is fine

So put your lips to mine (walk away)
Say your last goodbyes (walk away)
Its time for me to leave (walk away)
So hold me one last time (walk away)
And I'll return some day (walk away)
In a song or in a dream (walk away)
Just to let you know everything is fine
