

Become The Martyr

Light The Torch

Guilty of everything we've never done
We can burn alive without the sun
Memories remain until the story fades
The only thing eternal is it all decays

Nothing to give, nothing to barter
Silencing the voice held underwater
Pain's written on your face, and I'm the author
When there's no one left to blame
Become the martyr

Nothing's really ever what it seems to be
We can stay awake and kill the dream
Evolution only comes to reap the weak
Distance is the language that we choose to speak

Nothing to give, nothing to barter
Silencing the voice held underwater
Pain's written on your face, and I'm the author
Become the martyr

It's burning down
It's burning down
It's burning all away
It's burning down (Make it burn down slowly)
It's burning down (Sift the ashes and you'll find the bones)
It's burning all away (The gods are silent, you will bleed and bleed alone)

Nothing to give, nothing to barter
Silencing the voice held underwater
Pain's written on your face, and I'm the author
Become the martyr
