

Lost In The Fire

Light The Torch

Beg for mercy but we know
That my every prayer was born to fail

Whatever it takes, whatever it costs
This can't be the life that I've lost
(This can't be the life that I've lost)

Forever lost in the fire
It burns as far as the eye can see
One chance, my only desire
I won't be bound to misery

I'm losing the battle but we know
That it was over when the war began

Whatever it takes, whatever it costs
I will claim the life that I've lost
(Until my dying day)

Forever lost in the fire
It burns as far as the eye can see
One chance, my only desire
I won't be bound to misery

This I swear on all that's holy
I'll die for life and it consumes me

I'll die for life
Follow me down
I'll die for life
Follow me

One chance, my only desire

Forever lost in the fire
It burns as far as the eye can see
One chance, my only desire
I won't be bound to misery
To misery

One chance, my only desire
I won't be bound to misery

I'll die for life
Follow me down
I'll die for life
Follow me
