

The Sound Of Violence

Light The Torch

You can't ignore us
We won't relent
Suffer
In your descent
Now bow before us
In silence
And hear our voice
The sound of violence

We the worthless
Claim your birthright
Your oppression
This war we invite

You can't ignore us
You will lament
Suffer
Lest you repent
Inhale your poison
In silence
A broken throne
The sound of violence

We all know
What you really are
Your legacy
Will be buried in the dirt

Behind the lies
You are the prey
And for your sins
You will suffer with us
Behind the lies
You are the prey
And for your sins
You will suffer with us
