

Last Affair

Lightnin' Hopkins

I found out you were leavin' me baby, leavin' on the next train that runs
I found out you were leavin' me baby, leavin' on the next
train that runs
Now tell me how you can go away, darlin' not a thing that I have done

But if you just gotta go, don't bother me to worry too well
But if you just gotta go, don't bother me to worry too
well
Yes, I hope that you'll be happy, whenever I get over there

I guess I'll say goodbye, this will be my last affair
I guess I'll say goodbye, this will be my last affair Still I hope you'll be happy baby, when I meet you over
there

Just a singin' for my baby, for a man to walk away
Just a singin' for my baby, for a man to walk away
Yes, she leaves my home, and I've done everything
