

All Insane

Lightning Bolt

I, I want to rage until my dying day
And you, I would be psyched if you do the same
And time? Time's a knocking, better let it in Whoa yeah, and the doubt's just a ghost in your head
Pain, pain, pain, pain's a knocking, better let it in Yeah fight, fight it all away but you will never win
Me, they're gonna paint me into every scene
Oh yeah, they'll create new worlds in my name
Oh when, when, when I come around you all will lose your mind
Yeah you, you'll find yourself just a cloud in my sky

You, you live life like a butterfly
That smile, you got a smile that is broken and wild
Yeah you, I'm gonna miss you more than anything
When I, when I ascend to meet up with my sin
God, God, God ain't watching, no he never was
You gotta love, yeah you gotta love for the good of us all
God, God, he ain't listening, no he's just not here
You gotta live together, you gotta live before it all disappears

Yeah, yeah, yeah, you are all the same
Yeah, yeah, yeah, you are all insane
Yeah, yeah, yeah, you are all the same
Yeah, yeah, yeah, you are all insane
Yeah, yeah, yeah, you, you, you
Yeah, yeah, yeah, you are all the same
Yeah, yeah, yeah, you are all insane
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

Me, they're gonna paint me into every scene
Oh yeah, they'll create new worlds in my name
Oh when, when, when I come around you all will lose your mind
Yeah you, you'll find yourself just a cloud in my sky
Me, they're gonna paint me into every scene
Oh yeah, they'll create new worlds in my name
Oh when, when, when I come around you all will lose your mind
And you, you'll find yourself just alone in the sky
