

Beside Myself

Lights

Ghosts
Of us in the next life
Knowing what we know
On our last nights
Try to remind us
They remind us
To hold on tight

Call
Me in the morning
When you wake up
The world is in motion
And when you reach me
Are you with me
On the other side

Don't leave me hanging
Waiting for something
Believing in nothing
With nobody else
Body is aching
Dreaming and waking
Don't leave me waiting
Don't leave me here
Beside myself
Beside myself

Hold me
Like it's the last time
Like you remember
How it felt the first time
I know we're dying
Tell me it's okay
Not to be alright

Don't leave me hanging
Waiting for something
Believing in nothing
With somebody else
Body is aching
Dreaming and waking
Don't leave me waiting
Don't leave me here
Beside myself
Beside myself

We hold onto the good times
And the right now in the long nights
And the hometown and the bright lights
As they guide us to the next life
We hold onto the good times
And the right now in the long nights
And the hometown and the bright lights
As they guide us to the next life

Body is aching
Dreaming and waking

Don't leave me waiting
Don't leave me here
Beside myself
Beside myself
