

Blue Tint

Lights

Look who I'm fuckin' again
I had her on ice, but then
I watched the ice get thin
Now, does she sink or swim?

She had an attitude in the summer
But she bein' nice again
Double my price again
Top of the charts, back in their hearts
Honey, he strikes again, whoa
Some honeys bitter with life and they hate me
They wanna put knife in my ribs, whoa

Way this set up, I live like Ronaldo
But I never been in Madrid, whoa
She said that that she workin', I told her come over
And we can get right at the crib, whoa
She finish at six, but then say she got court in the morning
To fight for her kid, I told her I'd pray for the kid

What a time this is
To be alive for this shit
President doin' us in
My window got blue in the tint
Did this shit once and I'd do it again

Look who I'm fuckin' again
I had her on ice, but then
I watched the ice get thin
Now, does she sink or swim?

Blue faces, I got blue diamonds, blue tint, yeah
Blue faces, I got blue diamonds, blue tint, yeah

Look who I'm stuck with again
I had her on ice, but then
I watched the ice get so thin
Now, does she sink or does she swim, now?

She bein' nice again
Double my price again
Top of the charts, back in their hearts
Honey, he strikes again, whoa
Some honeys bitter with life and they hate me
They wanna put knife in my ribs, whoa

Nobody better, the show up and runnin'
And I could put that on the twins, whoa
We not together, but I get the info on you
'Cause I'm nice to your friends
Whoa, whoa, whoa, whoa
Shouldn't have told me, but they did

What a time this is
To be alive for this shit
President doin' us in
My window got blue in the tint

Did this shit once and I'd do it again
