

Hold Me Down

Lights

Why do we try so hard
Why are we up all night
Why do we fall apart
While we search for light

Oh the weaker side of me is to blame for my choices
When I dream it's a hundred voices
Telling me to breath, telling me it's pointless
Wipe my memory, sleep away the noises

Hold me down, hold me down, hold me
People say they want to come and fix you
Baby I got one too many issues
Problems I just don't wanna get into
But fuck it I just can't admit I miss you

Hold me down, hold me down, hold me down, hold me
Down, down, down, down

I leave way too many tabs open
I leave way too many hearts broken
I can't keep moving so fast
I need to make this last

Hold me down, hold me down, hold me down, hold me
Down, hold me down, hold me down, hold me down
Hold me down, hold me down, hold me down
