

Leave It

Lights

Am I the good guy?
Hey, that's a loaded question
I don't really know what it means
Do you hear me?
Am I breaking up?
Are we coming apart at the seams?

Standing in the morning light
Staring at an effigy of us
Feeling the pain of never feeling enough
But deep down, I know
You're not just a place to go
You're the best place I know

I want your love
Can't let go
Got a mind like a steel trap
But I ain't mechanical
I push, you pull
I give you a sign, you don't read it
I need to learn just to leave it
Leave it

Leave it
I need to learn just to leave it
Leave it
Leave it
Leave it
I need to learn just to leave it
Leave it

It was the first warm winter in a long time
You read my palms like fault lines
See the problem with trying to forget yourself
Is making a come back on time
I can feel your eyes roll
Even when they're closed
See the night comes to me
As easy as it goes

Staring at an effigy of us
Feeling the pain of never doing enough
And deep down, I know
You're not just a place to go
You're the best place I know

I want your love (I want your love)
Can't let go (I can't let go)
Got a mind like a steel trap
But I ain't mechanical
I push, you pull
I give you a sign, you don't read it
I need to learn just to leave it
Leave it

Leave it
I need to learn just to leave it

Leave it
Leave it
Leave it
I need to learn just to leave it
Leave it
