

Lost Together

Lights

They say you're on the wrong side on the wrong side
Made a deal with the devil just so you could cut ties
It's your own damn fault if you end up alone
Cause if they promised you love how come you're on your own

You'll always be a bad thing, a bad thing
And they tell you you're a monster for asking
Yeah they know you're not a god
But they're looking for a miracle

I am a stranger here
In a strange land
But there you are and here I am

So take me by the hand
If we're lost together
We can be found again, again

So take me by the hand
If we're lost together
We can be found again, again

You will always be a liability
Born enemy
Make you a believer
They want you to bleed
Down on your knees
Til you're easy to break
And you're easy to please
You'll always be a bad thing, a bad thing
And they tell you you're a monster for laughing
They know you're not a god
But they're looking for a miracle

I am a stranger here
I am a stranger here
In a strange land

So take me by the hand
If we're lost together
We can be found again, again

So take me by the hand
If we're lost together
We can be found again, again
