

New Clothes

Lights

You live in the same
Shadow as I do
Ghosts beneath sheets
You can't even see through

Surrounded by voices
But alone in a room
Whatever it's okay
I'm right there with you
With you, with you

I'll get some new clothes
When this is over I swear
Sit in the breeze
Drinking on a lawn chair
Hello to my demons
Cause I know they're dancing
And it's all good
I got the wind in my hair

I'll get some new clothes
When this is over I swear
Sit in the breeze
Drinking on a lawn chair
Hello to my demons
Cause I know they're dancing
And it's all good
I got the wind in my hair
In my hair, in my hair, in my hair
Hair, Hair, Hair

I haven't seen the sun much these days
Just hung a few lights in my new place
It's funny cause I haven't seen this much rain since I moved to LA
Feels like the silence is screaming
I guess this ain't nothing new
I know you're tired of fighting
I'm right there with you

With you, with you
I'm right there with you
With you, with you

I'll get some new clothes
When this is over I swear
Sit in the breeze
Drinking on a lawn chair
Hello to my demons
Cause I know they're dancing
And it's all good
I got the wind in my hair

I'll get some new clothes
Hello to my demons

Cause I know they're dancing
And it's all good
In my hair, in my hair, in my hair
Hair, Hair, Hair
I got the wind in my hair
In my hair, in my hair, in my hair
