Black Rain Hurricane

Like A Storm

Ocean that covers the sky
Black out the light from the sun
Day becomes darker than night
Under you I'm [?]

You're all that I know
All that I feel
You're all that I see
Smothering me
You're all that I touch
All that I taste
But how can I live
This lovely twist

You rain down on me
Rain down on me
I can feel it
I can feel it
You're pulling me in
To somewhere near
You rain down on me
Rain down on me
I can feel it
I can feel it
Deliver your pain
Black rain hurricane

Shadow that saturates
Stealing the life from the sun
Sorrow that sweeps me away
Losing myself in your gaze

You're all that I know
All that I feel
You're all that I see
Smothering me
You're all that I touch
All that I taste
But how can I live
This lovely twist

And I promise you now
I can feel it coming
Feel it coming down again
And I can feel it pulling
Pulling me down again

You rain down on me
Rain down on me
I can feel it
I can feel it
You're pulling me in
To somewhere near
You rain down on me
Rain down on me
I can feel it
I can feel it

Deliver your pain
Black rain hurricane
