

Ladies and gentlemen
Can I please have your attention?
This is only gonna take a second
Fame!

Welcome to the age of the good for nothing
Make believe and it'll make you something
Buy the lie, sell the dream
If you can't make it
To fake it's free
Welcome to the age of the new pollution
Where self-delusion's an institution
Zombies to the new disease
Look up from your hands
Get up off your knees

All that glitters isn't gold like they say (and we still pay)
Know my face, say my name

Everybody wants
Fame, fame, fame
Say my name
Everybody, do you need it?
Fame
Do you feed it?
Fame
Do you bleed it?
Fame
Say my name
Everybody wants fame

It's gone to another level
We made it god
And we met the devil
So tell me now who can you trust
With everybody trying to be Notorious
Back to the track now
How do we fix this?
Greed is the need and we feed on the sickness
Zombies to the new disease
Look up from your hands
Get up off your knees

All that glitters isn't gold like they say (and we still pay)
Know my face, say my name (look at me, look at me, look at me)

Everybody wants
Fame, fame, fame
Say my name
Everybody, do you need it?
Fame
Do you feed it?
Fame
Do you bleed it?
Fame
Oh yeah

Everybody wants fame

Ladies and gentlemen
Can I please have your attention?
This is only gonna take a second
Wake the fuck up!

Where a king is a villain
Fame
To be one in a million
Fame
Sell your soul for a killing
Fame
Look at me, look at me, look at me

Everybody wants
Fame, fame, fame
Sing it one more time
Fame, fame, fame
Everybody wants, everybody wants
Let me hear it

One more time
So now you know
All the highs, all the lies
It's all for show
Wake the fuck up!
