

Burn in Water, Drown in Flame

Like Moths to Flames

Teach me how to walk on water
I've been sinking down

Teach me how to walk with fire
Until ash remains
And I've lost desire to breathe

I thought my bitterness died
But it was blind to the light
Can I find my way from the abyss?
Or is this how I exist?

Where did it all go wrong?
Is it all for nothing?
Send me a sign to put me out of my suffering
Where did it all go wrong?
Can't help but feel like I'm alone
Left to hang here at the end of my rope

Teach me how to feel inspired
I've lost motivation
And I'm so fucking tired of draining out my heart
Of every word as it falls apart

Put me out of my fucking suffering

Where did it all go wrong?
Is it all for nothing?
Send me a sign to put me out of my suffering

Where did it all go wrong?
Is it all for nothing?
Send me a sign to put me out of my suffering
Where did it all go wrong?
Can't help but feel like I'm alone

Teach me how to walk on water
I've been sinking down
