

Chine Drive

Like Pacific

Why do I care, I spent more money than time I hate the fact that my heart's in tact but not connected with my mind
And I left the awkward gifts over my bed Calling you from chine drive so you can get inside my head

Pleases mean things to me, but your excuses run deep I'm sorry that you're drinking again, this has to be the fifth
time this week
Are you staying for my sake. I swear I changed the lock before you ruined me
What is your destiny?

I'm set set in my ways, look at your wrongs and repeated scenes
And you go on about how fake displacement issues like me Not fucking mine. My time is out of the question now Due to the fact that I'm nothing and you will do better (than m e)

Pleases mean things to me, but your excuses run deep
time this week
Are you staying for my sake. I swear I changed the lock before
you ruined me
What is your destiny?

I'm just a goddamn page in a history book
That will never be read
Due to the fact that I'm nothing and you can do better
So I will write this page, give it a second look You won't read it anyway
Due to the fact that I'm nothing and you can do better

Pleases mean things to me, but your excuses run deep
I'm sorry that you're drinking again, this has to be the fifth
time this week
Are you staying for my sake. I swear I changed the lock before
you ruined me
What is your destiny?

You ruined me
