

So you say things you won't say to my goddamn face
Act as if I'm deaf or my spine's misplaced
But the two worst things were you and I in case you were wonder ing

As I sit back and take it all in Critical thinking was all I did
You had your fair share of chances, no second win
Now I'll lead by example

This is as good as gold gets
Now I'm hostage in my head
You know exactly what you did
So forget all the things I said

You know exactly what you did
So forget

Oh, how perfect it is to prey on the young and weak
Buzz up three floors and the outlook's bleek, just give me a br eak
You only hear what you wanna hear and you only corrupt just abo ut everyone
This river I fucking step in ain't the river I stand in

There's not enough lights in this place
To keep me from giving you shade

Two way thinking on a one way fucking street...

This is as good as gold gets
Now I'm hostage in my head
You know exactly what you did
So forget all the things I said
You know exactly what you did
So forget
