

The Worst

Like Pacific

All the time and money I've spent is not worth it
And stupid lies you spread are not a quality if you think about it
Your life made up of bullshit

Tell yourself that you're better than everyone else
But we've heard it, and it's time to grow up

They say experience comes with age and at your pace
You'll be fifteen full of heartache forever
Nothings changed, you still stayed the same
You'll grow up and grow out, of your negative state of mind

You've kept me awake for a while and I can't sleep at night
I hear your cries for attention, but you're just wasting your breath
And you're wasting all of mine

Now that you're better than everyone else, and we've heard it
Yeah, it's time to grow up

They say experience comes with age and at your pace
You'll be fifteen full of heartache forever
Nothings changed, you still stayed the same
You'll grow up and grow out, of your negative state of mind

Why do I defend your unhealthy state of mind?
I realize that my friends have been right all along, but I was too blind

Just because it (just because it) isn't worth it (isn't worth it)
I know you'll tell your friends I'm at it again
(They say experience comes with age and at your pace
You'll be fifteen full of heartache)
