lil aaron

Kim Petras and lil aaron

I don't know you anymore
There's no reason
I ignore all the stupid things you tell me
All the stupid things you tell me
You think you're better off without me
You think you're better off without me
I don't know you anymore

Shoulda listened to the shit my mama told me
Not to mention all the warnings from my homies
Woulda let you kill me, but that's the old me
So drink up, drink up
So you can forget that you're lonely

I ain't even tryna get like that
Always lookin' through my shit like that
Now you're just another girl who used to know me
So drink up, drink up
So you can forget that you're lonely

I don't know you anymore
There's no reason
I ignore all the stupid things you tell me
All the stupid things you tell me
You think you're better off without me
You think you're better off without me
I don't know you anymore

I'm over your stupid excuses, you're useless
We're over, I'm movin' out
Who's losin' now?

I ain't even tryna get like that
Always lookin' through my shit like that
Now you're just another girl who used to know me
So drink up, drink up
So you can forget that you're lonely

Wooh-ah!

I don't know you anymore
There's no reason
I ignore all the stupid things you tell me
All the stupid things you tell me
You think you're better off without me
You think you're better off without me
I don't know you anymore
