I'm afraid to wake up, cuz my life is like a nightmare
I try to run but my demons still right there
Always living in the shadows
It's fucked up, I hate it
I can't get out hard as I try
If I can't live then I might as well die
I been going thru some shit
U can see it in my eyes
And I never get sleep
Cuz I'm staying up all night (yeah)

God I fucking hate my brain
Wish I can wake up from this dream
