

Happy Ending

lil aaron

I don't wanna talk about it
I'm so sick of going off about it
Lately I feel like an actor in a movie without a happy ending

I had this dream that I dreamed that I was dreaming
But you were bulletproof, baby I was bleeding
I stole your breath and I kept it for the weekend
You took my heart cause you liked how it was beating

I was in love with the red lines
The way that they fell out of my eyes
The way that they burned in the headlines and I was the only one left on the outside

I don't wanna talk about it
I'm so sick of going off about it
Lately I feel like an actor in a movie without a happy ending
I don't wanna make a fuss about it
Cause honestly I've heard too much about it
Lately I feel like an actor in a movie without a happy ending
Without a happy ending

I woke up with a ruby red jet black heart again, I couldn't figure it out
So I was all broke up with a hole in my face, yeah, where my mouth ha d been Drinking from a holy faucet

But I was in love with the red lines
The way that they fell out of my eyes
The way that they burned in the headlines and I was the only one left
on the outside

I don't wanna talk about it
I'm so sick of going off about it
Lately I feel like an actor in a movie without a happy ending
I don't wanna make a fuss about it
Cause honestly I've heard too much about it
Lately I feel like an actor in a movie without a happy ending
Without a happy ending

Rolling the dice again, feeling the blood turn red
Playing it off again, watching the sky pretend

Without a happy ending

Rolling the dice again, feeling the blood turn red

Without a happy ending...
