

Never Knew

lil aaron

Never knew I needed love until I lost it
So much hurt inside my heart and I can't stop the pain
Trapped up in my mind been feeling like a hostage
Stormy weather in my life and I can't stop the rain

Never knew I need love until I lost her
I might have to go replace her with an Oscar (nah)
We've been partying too much, it's on the rocks (yeah)
It's non stop (now)
It's non stop (yeah)

I've been partying too much with lil' Aaron
I should lay off of the whiskey, it's apparent

So much drugs inside my system I can't stand up
Everybody talking I can't understand them

[?] inside the headphones
I stay working till my pockets full of dead folks (uh)
Rememher days when I was dead broke (uh)
But I ain't ever going back, no

It's like I'm living different lives I'm a sketch up
Me and Goody had it going, make a hit, though
Dip in my lip baddy on my hip, though
Sometimes I still fucking miss my old bitch though

In due time you'll hear this voice on every station
Sick of waiting I was growing too impatient
Smile in my face behind my back they hating
Thats why all my clothes say "fuck the population"

I've been fucking hella boobies just to ease the pain
Told you to come through then it's a threeway
I'm a problem boy, just look at what my jeans say
Next time you see me will probably be on the TV

Mind my lonely I don't really ever need shit
I'ma pull up in a Caddy bumping 3-6
I might go and cop a crib for my mama Stay the same thats just the way I was brought up (uh, yeah, Go ody and Lil' Aaron)
