

ONE IN A MILLION

lil aaron

I might be
Losing my mind lately
No, nothing feels right to me
Won't someone stop this bus
Mannequins
Well they're all dressed up as businessmen
I stand and hold the door open
And watch them as they rush

Everybody wants an easy win
But they don't want to put the hard work in
And I should know I'm just as bad as them
We'll be waiting round until we're skeletons in the end

If you don't play the game
You'll never be a winner
And that job that you hate
Just makes someone else richer
But this dog will have its day
Just you wait and see
I heard it's one in a million
One in a mill so it's gotta be me
So it's gotta be me

I pray to god, I better fucking win the lottery
Otherwise I'll resort to armed robbery
I'll do whatever
To make sure my mumma proud of me
Feel like I'm one in a million, I'm an anomaly
Damn, guess I gotta try my luck
Been down bad, never really gave a fuck
Still feel like a million bucks
From the bottom to the tippy tippy top, I'm stuck

Everybody wants an easy win
But they don't want to put the hard work in
And I should know I'm just as bad as them
We'll be waiting round until we're skeletons in the end

If you don't play the game
You'll never be a winner
And that job that you hate
Just makes someone else richer
But this dog will have its day
Just you wait and see
I heard it's one in a million
One in a mill so it's gotta be me

I can't go back
I can't back down
I'll force my hand
I'll steal your crown (So it's gotta be me)
It's all on me
It's all on red (So it's gotta be me)
Until I wake up dead
So it's gotta be me
