

All Women

Lil B

Every woman, every queen
Born onto this earth
One of the most beautiful creations I've ever seen: the woman
The strong woman, the beautiful woman
All shapes and sizes, different colors, different horizons
All women are beautiful
Forget the mistakes and forgive one
Know that the woman is us
We are them, we love them
Women this is a time to appreciate you
Your beauty is amazing
All women across the Earth
Every woman is unique
No top model is me
Just breathing and thinking, the women
All women on Earth share a common beauty
I started looking at upcoming queens
Age is beauty, your skin wrinkles 'cuz you're solid
Grey hair represents knowledge
Women bring a pure light to your life
The choices are between us
It's alright to think stuff
Have you appreciated a woman's knowledge?
Pay attention to her comments
Emotions fast like a moving comet
A softer side when you being honest
Wanna reproduce, every women want a son or a daughter
A woman's worth is max well it's too much to explain
Can't express in dollar signs how I feel about our queens
You all are queens, beautiful as the days, beautiful as my name

All women are beautiful
Around the world
Stand up
All women are beautiful

All women are beautiful
Around the world
Stand up
All women are beautiful

Doesn't matter your background
Mistakes you made
A woman brings another page to the book of days
Look a queen in her eyes, you can see a queen
Don't matter how you look, you just see a queen
I know any man would be honored to be a king
That's why I had to write a song for the world's queens
Human beings is not enough
Women, live your life
You are smart enough
Your aroma is smelling better every time
Life is yours, to my beautiful queens
World of women, the Earth is yours
Live your dream
To the queens

All women are beautiful
Stand up
