

How You Know

Lil Debbie

I'm in my Audi music loud while blowing dro
I had to tint the windows just to hide the smoke
No, I can't drive unless it's chrome up in the tires
Open the door, you think I just came out a fire
Pull up beside me, I will leave you in the dust
I brought my own, so ain't no passing when I puff
Say you got 50? Sorry, 50 ain't enough
It's Lil Debbie, so you know I'm caking up
Go to the mall and buy it all just like before
You wear my size, they just sold out in every store
My floor is full of stretched and broken rubber bands
Money so new that it get sticky to my hands
Better sit down because you never stood a chance
I fucking dump the world (and got time for romance?)
Before I land, I need my money in advance
Yeah you a fan, but please, don't step on my new Vans

Now how you know, how you know?
How you know this pussy good, boy, how you know?
Now how you know, how you know?
How you know I run the Bay, bitch, how you know?
Now how you know, how you know?
How you know this pussy good, boy, how you know?
Now how you know, how you know?
How you know I run the Bay, bitch, how you know?

If the purse ain't Gucci Gang, you know it's Fendi
If not Ciroc that I be sipping, then it's Henny
If not a 'Rari, then I'm probably in a Rover
If not 8 grams up in my blunt, well then, I'm sober
I'm waking up to 2 more million in the bank
And I just smoked a pound, the neighbors say it stank
I got a truck that's standing bigger than a tank
And my nails gon always match the Candy paint
She say she on my level
I said, "Hoe, you wish"
I got that sex appeal these men cannot resist
If your homies happy, please don't take the risk
I'll take your man and give him back then take his bitch
No, I'm not cocky but my confidence is high
And If I want it, I'm gon make sure that it's mine
Ain't got no budget so I never check the tags
Just dropped a couple bags to get a bigger bag

Now how you know, how you know?
How you know this pussy good, boy, how you know?
Now how you know, how you know?How you know I run the Bay, bitch, how you know?
Now how you know, how you know?
How you know this pussy good, boy, how you know?
Now how you know, how you know?How you know I run the Bay, bitch, how you know?
