

Menace

Lil Durk

Ayo, Benny. This beat crazy

Recall the time we lost our late, it's a design
To make everybody change and lose their minds
We livin' life with nothin' to gain, we in a bind
We in the blindsight, never slipped the line
You feel like dyin', right? Bro, it ain't your time
All that cryin' made me a menace
You feelin' lost, right? No one here to find you
All that cryin' made you a menace

Bro took a deposition, fine print, still a witness
How you gon' give up every name? Told 'em every killer
To each his own, everybody got a stigma
But mine different, so we count you out the litter
From sandbox, we hit the stage, we gettin' bigger
If you afraid to be yourself, you can't deliver
Don't fault yourself for doin' shit that ain't intentional
They took me down for some shit, I got acquitted
Sometimes my devastation had me in the middle
From usin' full force on people out to get me
I tried to resolve all my problems, kill the tension
I never texted little bro back, he took a pistol
But I can't blame him, definitely my little hitter
That shit a main trend livin' in my city
You got your guys, I got my guys to fire at the nemesis
And you can't come back on my side, you get the picture
These niggas snakes, anaconda, they're the biggest They're gon' betray everything to fix the image
You can't debate when it come to makin' history
You'll be okay if you stand up on your pivot

Recall the time we lost our late, it's a design
To make everybody change and lose their minds
We livin' life with nothin' to gain, we in a bind
We in the blindsight, never slipped the line
You feel like dyin', right? Bro, it ain't your time
All that cryin' made me a menace
You feelin' lost, right? No one here to find you
All that cryin' made you a menace
