Wake up, roll up a decker
Rubbing on her nipples while we steady kissing
Even after sex that pussy steady dripping
I told her I'd be fuckin' but she something different
She like I'm cocky to riches I'm ignorant
Always mind her business, don't put two cent in it
Dress her in Dior and tell her mind her business
I take her on a trip and pay for all expenses
I don't got no type, I like all hoes
Even in the hood with some dog hoes
But them be them bitches we don't fall for Talking down bitch, the one that we can call on Like bring me the work, shawty bring me the pack
Like bring me the lean, shawty bring me the strap
Her ass is like promoters how she bring it back
She'll drop before she ever with that

But is you worth it?
