pretty thing

Lil Lotus

And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, leavin' my tears on the track
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back
And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, with my pretty thing in the back
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back

I'ma call you right back
Blue pill got you nauseous
So white lines got us talkin'
We always talkin' 'bout the commas
They always talkin' 'bout some drama
And to be honest, I was over it
Knew it was easy just to call it quits
Baby walked up in the door and I was into it
Baby called me, she want more and I dived into it
So stop callin', stop callin'
I be with my pretty lil thing, and you know we ballin'
I wouldn't even care if you think that I wasn't honest
Screamin' at the top of your lungs, but I just don't want it
Stop callin', stop callin' me
I don't owe you or nobody anything
Stop callin', stop callin' me
I don't owe you or nobody anything

And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, leavin' my tears on the track
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back
And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, with my pretty thing in the back
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back
(Stop callin', stop callin', stop callin', stop callin', stop callin')
And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, leavin' my tears on the track
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back
And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, with my pretty thing in the back
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back
(Stop callin', stop callin', stop callin', stop callin', stop callin')
And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, leavin' my tears on the track
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back
And she said, "Oh no, why you do me like that?"
Oh no, why you do me like that?
And I've been gone, with my pretty thing in the back
Gotta go, I'ma call you right back
(Stop callin', stop callin', stop callin', stop callin', stop callin')
