

Run Home

Lil Lotus

How many times can we say these things?
Keep pretending that it never meant anything
Our minds wonder but I always knew
When I close my eyes all I see is you

And for the first time
I'm feeling closer to closure
I feel the storm blowing over
Like I can close my eyes tonight
And I can see it in your eyes
(Let go)
A whisper in the night
(Run home)
Run home, Run home

And thought I was right for too long, now it's time to face it
(Now it's time to face it)
I can feel it inside of my bones and it's so hard to shake it
(It's so hard to shake it)
And it's so hard to shake it (it's so hard to shake it)
It's so hard to shake it (it's so hard to shake it)

Face
All these places are never the same
I can't believe I've grown so deranged
You haunt me anyway I run
I'll never change
Into what you've become

And for the first time
I'm feeling closer to closure
I feel the storm blowing over
Like I can close my eyes tonight
And I can see it in your eyes
(Let go)
A whisper in the night
(Run home)
Run home, Run home
