

We were falling apart
In your room, all alone, counting starz in the ceiling
Now you're scared of the dark
'Cause as soon as I leave it's just you and your demons
I don't know where to start
Didn't know what you said, I just hope that you mean it
And now we're falling apart
Now we're falling like starz from the ceiling

'Cause I don't wanna think about you anymore
(N-N-Now we're falling like starz from the ceiling)
No, I don't wanna think about you anymore
(N-N-Now we're falling like starz from the ceiling)

It's like I don't know you at all
'Cause you kept pictures on the wall
I guess I'll never understand
I'm alright, I'm okay (But it doesn't matter anyway)
And maybe that's a problem
I get my hopes up high then end up at the bottom
It's even if we never speak again
I'll still be right here like I've always been

I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart (I'll still be right here like I've always been)
I'm falling apart
I'm falling apart (I'll still be right here like I've always been)

We were falling apart
In your room, all alone, counting starz in the ceiling
Now you're scared of the dark
'Cause as soon as I leave it's just you and your demons
I don't know where to start
Didn't know what you said, I just hope that you mean it
And now we're falling apart
Now we're falling like starz from the ceiling
