

Want You Back

Lil Lotus

One thing is all I ever needed
To think that I won't see you leaving
Three words that you won't ever mean
Like "I love you" but you can't see that

(2, 3, 4!)

Wake up in the same bed
4pm it's late, it's the weekend
Where'd I even put my keys at
(Fuck)
Liquor store closing, gotta drive fast

Red light, still brain dead
Hit the gas, wasn't even thinking
(Fuck)
Foggy like a trainwreck
Blue lights beaming
Got me thinking

Do you know
Yeah I know
I've been living life too fast without you

One thing, all I ever needed
To think I won't see you leaving
Three words that you won't ever mean
Like "I love you"
But you can't see that

One day you'll tell me that you love me
Too late, cause every cut was too deep
"Please stay, I'll never let you go"
And it hurts so bad cause I want you back

I want you back
And it hurts so bad cause I want you back

You say that I'm sick, sick, sick
You're the girl with tattoos of a 666
I know you're a liar when you kiss my lips
I don't want to do it if you live like this (Live like this)

I feel it all again, it's obvious
The way you come undone
Like broken hearts and all the signs we missed
Cause we were on the run

I feel it all again
I feel it all again
I've been living life too fast without you

One thing, all I ever needed
To think I won't see you leaving
Three words that you won't ever mean
Like "I love you"

But you can't see that

One day you'll tell me that you love me
Too late, cause every cut was too deep
"Please stay, I'll never let you go"
And it hurts so bad cause I want you back

I want you back
It hurts so bad, yeah I want you back

One day you'll tell me that you love me
Too late, cause every cut was too deep
"Please stay, I'll never let you go"
And it hurts so bad, yeah I want you back
