Lil Mosey

One thing I can't take it, I'm tryna be patient
Back when I was fifteen, workin' in a basement
Uzi in my headphones, layin' on a pavement
Stack my money dead wrong, different color bracelets
Took my first pill, I can't even function
Don't know how it feel, tryna come up from nothing
Tryna find myself, but I can't, does some conflict?
Smokin' doesn't help, fuck it, roll up, keep it comin'

Late night, tryna slide up
Who decides who gon' make it, who gon' die?
When I feel I live
All this shit I sacrificed just for peace of mind
Put my part right to the side

'Cause I'm goin' up, goin' up, goin' up
'Cause I'm goin' up, goin' up, goin' up
Bitch you know it's us, stack my paper, bitch, you throw it up
Know it's us, put a beat on bitch, and load me up

Deep inside this water, I'm tryna bless this for you
Tryna get this pack and flip it, just meet me in the mornin' (Stu')
Track-jumpin' like it's Jordan, man, fuck my school it's borin'
We hop inside this Honda, know we drive like a foreign
My life feel like a DVD, I'm doggin' shit
Man, I know just what they see in me, I'm tryna win
Man, you know I ain't doin' shit for free, I'm tryna flip
Man, you know I'm out here every week
Oh, somebody listen

Man, at least somebody knows
Hope these drugs gon' take my soul
Put my trust inside this pole
Man, at least somebody knows

Late night, tryna slide up
Who decides who gon' make it, who gon' die?
When I feel I live
All this shit I sacrificed just for peace of mind
Put my part right to the side

'Cause I'm goin' up, goin' up, goin' up
'Cause I'm goin' up, goin' up, goin' up
Bitch you know it's us, stack my paper, bitch, you throw it up
Know it's us, put a beat on bitch, and load me up

Man, at least somebody knows
Hope these drugs gon' take my soul
Put my trust inside this pole
