

Call

Lil Mosey

Mmm, yeah
Oh-oh-oh, ayy

Back against the wall
Somewhere you fall
They try to make you, try to break you but stand tall
I can't fall (I can't fall), I can't at all (I can't at all)
Only one that really knows me is the mirror on the wall
On that wall (On the wall), what's on that wall? (Was on that wall)
It's all the pictures from my past that won't dissolve (Oh)
When you feel small (You feel small), that's sad and all (That's sad and all)
But if you had that one wish, who would you call?

Who would you call-all-all-all-all-all-all?

Hey it's me, your mom, just checkin' in hope everything's good
Stay safe, be strong, love you
You know I'm here for you, always
Reach out, anytime, alright bye

I would give everything to hear your voice again (Your voice again)
Just to go back and forth, back and forth again (Back and forth again)
I know you had way more life, like way more life to live (Way more life to live)
I wish you had one more chance, just one more time to live

So who would you call-all-all-all-all-all-all?
