

Selfish

Lil Mosey

I want you to myself baby, there ain't nobody else
Missed things from past flings, are starting to show themselves
So if I get over excited, it's hard to help
Six years of baggage, can't complicate your mental health, so-

Hold me tight, and say, "It's mine"
And I promise I'm not tryna waste your time

You know that I get selfish (I get selfish), selfish (You know I get selfish)
You know that I get selfish (I get selfish), selfish (You know I get selfish)
Sorry, I'm overboard, I've been hurt before
That's why I get selfish (I get selfish)
Selfish, selfish

I'm a little immature
But of course, you're too busy keeping scores
Your gravity, it hold me down, just like a force
Till I take your love for granted, it ain't fair, yeah-yeah
Indecisive, it ain't clear, yeah-yeah
Plenty of a fish in the well, yeah-yeah
You're hot, then you're cold
But you might touch a heaven in hell, yeah-yeah

Hold me tight, and say, "It's mine"
And I promise I'm not tryna waste your time

You know that I get selfish (I get selfish), selfish (You know I get selfish)
You know that I get selfish (I get selfish), selfish (You know I get selfish)
Sorry, I'm overboard, I've been hurt before
That's why I get selfish (I get selfish)
Selfish, selfish

I need somebody to ease the pain
I need some better days, I need some better days
You need some better days
I need somebody to ease the pain
I need some better days, I need some better days
You need some better days

You know that I get selfish (I get selfish), selfish (You know I get selfish)
You know that I get selfish (I get selfish), selfish (You know I get selfish)
Sorry, I'm overboard, I've been hurt before
That's why I get selfish (I get selfish)
Selfish, selfish
