

Bullet

Lil Peep

Everything here is dead
It's easier to see when it's night
I just heard a voice in my head
It asked me if I'm gon' be alright

Everything here is dead, it's easier to see when it's night
I just heard a voice in my head, it asked me if I'm gon' be alright
Leave me in the back of your head
Yeah, you know I'm talking to you
Not too long ago, I probably would have died for you
Everything here is dead, it's easier to see when it's night
I just heard a voice in my head, it asked me if I'm gon' be alright
Leave me in the back of your head
Yeah, you know I'm talking to you
Not too long ago, I probably would have died for you

I had to get in, I get up for this, I hit it and then you know it
Who left that door open? 'Cause the windows and door
You original sin, bitch, you hated on Peep
But you was trying to hop in the Benz'
Used to do childish stuff, this is just the beginning
You gotta be dressed before the whole team
Thought you special, you a lame
Now I wanna cry, but I'm with Crybaby
Fuck with my emotions, you can get the fuck
I flexed up, with the best love
You was only good for a quick fuck
Bust a couple nuts, now I gotta run
Cooling off, you like the barrel at the end of my gun
Point it to my temple, I'm done
Oh, this tempo and your girl got me sprung
My house is cramped, want a dead president
Fuck the sentiment
I'ma put the bullet to the back of my head

Everything here is dead, it's easier to see when it's night
I just heard a voice in my head, it asked me if I'm gon' be alright
Leave me in the back of your head
Yeah, you know I'm talking to you
Not too long ago, I probably would have died for you
Everything here is dead, it's easier to see when it's night
I just heard a voice in my head, it asked me if I'm gon' be alright
Leave me in the back of your head
Yeah, you know I'm talking to you
Not too long ago, I probably would have died for you
