Give me your all, all
Give me your all, all, all, all

Give me your all
Baby, I ain't comin' up to fall
At first, you gotta crawl, then you get this tall
I ain't had much help
Now I'm all on my own in my room
Why the fuck is people callin' my phone? Wish it's you
But it ain't, now I'm stuck in my head
Feelin' like I'm dead, lookin' up from my bed
I don't need nothin', 'cept a dollar and a dream
I don't even need the dollar, I would rather have a bean

I had no one, you were someone
Someone to help me, someone to save me
I had no one, you were someone
Someone to help me, someone to save me from myself

Give me your all, all
Give me your all, all

Give me your all
Baby, I ain't comin' up to fall
At first, you gotta crawl, then you get this tall
I ain't had much help
Now I'm all on my own in my room
Why the fuck is people callin' my phone? Wish it's you
But it ain't, now I'm stuck in my head
Feelin' like I'm dead, lookin' up from my bed
I don't need nothin', 'cept a dollar and a dream
I don't even need the dollar, I would rather have a bean

Give me your all, all
Give me your all, all
Give me your all, all
Give me your all, all
