Lil Peep

Have you ever seen a man this rich, this broke, this lost in the smoke? Please pray for me
I can never hide, my ghost come everywhere I go, tell heaven don't wait for me
Satan waitin' at the gate for me
I heard this bitch bump LiL Peep faithfully
That's why these pussies got hate for me
'Cause they was busy chasin' bitches, I was chasin' dreams
Throw me off the edge, I'll fall
Lookin' up at 'em like I never even knew them at all
I remember walkin' around in the hall
And then the bell rang and I tell there's somethin' that I couldn't recall Makin' you cry the way she did, I can't forgive myself for
And if you won't me too, I'll kill myself, but I'm already in hell for

You used to love me then, I know it's not the same
But this is not the end 'cause everything gon' change
When I get that Benz, I'ma pull up in the rain and I'm gon' say
You weren't right
