

WIN 4 LOSIN

Lil Poppa

(Vxsma)

Take medication for pain
Lookin' for peace, take a flight
And, I'll be gone from the mornin' through the night (Oh)
Say, if I leave and it's stormin', I won't never come back
Harder to see when you young, you lived a Hell of a life (Hell of a life)
I live a Hell of a life

You only live once, I don't think I can do this shit twice
Tryna heal for months, I don't think I'm doin' this shit right
You wanna see me stunt, but, I don't know what I'm doin'
As the world turn, this shit can get confusin'
But, I keep goin'
Yeah, I keep movin'
It's like I'm tryna keep goin', but, I can't win for losin'

Just forgive me if I lose it, I don't mean harm (I don't mean harm)
Try to tell you I'm the one, back when I was young (Back when I was young)
When you comin' from nothin', you don't know I really won (You don't know I really won)
Life, I'm blessed with my son
I got the world in my palm (I got the world in my palm)
Hell nigga, but, I can heat ya
Know they plan on creepin' us, but, them niggas ain't creepin' us
Cemeteries in the county jail, my niggas deepin' up
Heard he a gangster on the street, now, you weak
Been out for weeks, and still ain't got a full sleep, yeah
Lookin' at the clock, why I ain't eat yet?
Missed calls from my bitch, and, I'm like, "Where you at? I need that"
Sorry, but, it ain't the relationship that I need bad
And, I'm too full for your feedback

You only live once, I don't think I can do this shit twice
Tryna heal for months, I don't think I'm doin' this shit right
You wanna see me stunt, but, I don't know what I'm doin'
As the world turn, this shit can get confusin'
But, I keep goin'
Yeah, I keep movin'
It's like I'm tryna keep goin', but, I can't win for losin'

Man you only said fifteen, but all the mills [?]
You like double checks, I'm 'bout to get this chain cut, it was [?] right up
And, his mama love him, but can't say the same thing 'bout his daughter (Yeah, yeah)
His sister hate him 'cause she can't sleep 'fore them come shootin' the house up
Ought to be with Gs she make 'em go on hits and cash out (Yeah)
But, for real, I got a driver, teach the youngins I ain't tryna crash 'em out (Mhm-mm)
Remember you pullin' up when you used to see me, right now, you passin' by
You can't kill nobody, game of life [?], send it off [?]
Bags goin' double, tryna pay your bills, like damn
Judge, won't you take back all those years?
I will do fifty, have you die in a cell

You only live once, I don't think I can do this shit twice

Tryna heal for months, I don't think I'm doin' this shit right
You wanna see me stunt, but, I don't know what I'm doin'
As the world turn, this shit can get confusin'
But, I keep goin'
Yeah, I keep movin'
It's like I'm tryna keep goin', but, I can't win for losin'

I keep goin'
And, I keep movin'
You know me
