

No Rest

Lil Skies

(Woah)

I've been up five days, I can't get no rest

Menoh

I've been up five days, I can't get no, ayy (I can't get no rest, I can't get no rest)

Ayy, ayy

I've been up five days, I can't get no rest

Stay inside my house, dodgin' questions from the press

She gon' fall in love, my nigga, what did you expect?

Everybody love you when they know that you got next

Got my gang with me, we on that fuck shit

She didn't like me then, now she wanna suck it

I don't got no time, get my cash in abundance

Book me for a show, I hit your stage and get it jumpin'

Bitch, I got on Balenciaga

He said he ridin', I don't know him, that boy not my partner

My bitch a queen, she took a pic, look like the new Madonna

Hopped out the foreign, cracked his head, that boy look like piñata

Go crazy for them dollars, ayy, ayy

I don't got no time for these lames in my face

I'ma take the trophy and go put it in a case

You were talkin' down, but you just look like a disgrace

I'ma grab the choppa, get the bullets out the vase

'Fore them niggas talkin', they don't want no smoke

When I used to come around, they'd play me for a joke

Now she wanna suck and put my Johnny in her throat

I go barely in and shawty callin' me the G.O.A.T

I'm the big man, I count big bands

You sinkin', quicksand, she on a handstand

I got my brothers with me, try me, you actin' silly

Love me, but wanna kill me

Know they all gonna feel me, ah

I've been up five days, I can't get no rest
