

THOUSANDS

Lil Skies

(Uh-huh) (Uh-huh)
(On me, for you)
(Zerby)
(It's on me) (Woo)
(Uh-huh) (Woo)
(Ayy, ayy, ayy) (Woo)
Ayy

I don't like to play games, I just like to ball out
They been praying on my downfall, ain't wanna fall out
But I'm standing ten toes, they can't ever knock me down
I'ma keep on balling nigga, I'm the king, give me the crown
I got different styles (Yeah)
I got different thousands
Throw the money, I can pile it
Stacking higher than a mountain

I put candy in my J, take a puff and fade away
I ain't worried 'bout you niggas, I ain't come to save the day
I'm a motherfucking villain, you can see it in my face
I done been through so much pain, it's hard so I just fade away
I just take another puff, I just pour another cup
I can't ever get enough, people telling me to stop
Why would I do that? Nigga this is how I cope
They good with everything, dealing with niggas that's broke
I'm tired of the bullshit, they asking "Where they handouts?"
They asking for everything, they got their hands out
Like I ain't got it nigga, now you ain't my friend now
'Cause I said no once, nigga that is not one thou'

I don't like to play games, I just like to ball out
They been praying on my downfall, ain't wanna fall out
But I'm standing ten toes, they can't ever knock me down
I'ma keep on balling nigga, I'm the king, give me the crown
I got different styles (Yeah)
I got different thousands
Throw the money, I can pile it
Stacking higher than a mountain

I was tryna' make it work and give the money to my niggas
I was out there doin' shows, they getting mad 'cause I got bigger
What was I supposed to do? I swear I had to social distance
I ain't know how to feel 'cause all these niggas, they was tripping
And they told me that I changed now
I'm sipping purple rain now
Prolly' marry Mary J now
She the one that helped me mellow out
I've been in another lane, I've been in a another mode
If I'm really being honest, I could never sell my soul
All you niggas talkin' tough, but we know that you ain't bold
Treat 'em like some toilet paper, throw 'em down the toilet bowl (Ugh)

I don't like to play games, I just like to ball out
They been praying on my downfall, ain't wanna fall out
But I'm standing ten toes, they can't ever knock me down
I'ma keep on balling nigga, I'm the king, give me the crown
I got different styles (Yeah)

I got different thousands
Throw the money, I can pile it
Stacking higher than a mountain
