

Back It Up

Lil Tecca

Back it up and work it
Tell me, tell me, what's the verdict?
You gon' back it up and—
Pull up and work it
Move around now
Nigga, 'round now
Bad ho go

Oh, you perfect, oh, now you nervous
Me, you on this side, we versin'
Tryna win, I'm determined
Thought you was on my mind, I was certain
Hit me up, baby, tell me, what's the verdict?
You on my page, why you steady lurkin'?
Baby, just back it up and work it
Back it up and work it
Baby, just back it up and work it
Back it up and work it
Baby, just back it up and work it, yeah
Been hurt, can't hurt me
Feelin' lonely, was feelin' deserted
I don't wanna catch no feelings
Baby, back it up and work it
Back it up and work it
Back it up and work it
Back it up and work it
Baby, just back it up and work it

As long as you love me
I don't know how you can't trust me
If you fuck with the angels, you lucky
Are you dumb? I'm thinkin' you must be

Obstacles, runnin' 'round dodgin' these obstacles
Because I know that I got a lot to lose
Don't care for her, just tell the truth
I promise, I won't be mad at you
That's on everything you say, it's factual
Countin' blessings, gotta equal my gratitude
Wake up gettin' money, do what I gotta do
Never switch up on the gang, that's constitute
Tell a lie on the gang, that's treason
Niggas woke up feelin' different, switch for no reason
Niggas, they be switchin' man, cookin' under seasoned
They be like "Tecca lookin' skinny, start eatin'"
Nigga, I just hop up on the beat and then I eat it
Shawty, she don't like me, she like "Tecca, be conceited"
Baby, you could keep it 'cause I don't really need it

Oh, you perfect, oh, now you nervous
Me, you on this side, we versin'
Tryna win, I'm determined
Thought you was on my mind, I was certain
Hit me up, baby, tell me, what's the verdict?
