

Half The Plot

Lil Tecca

I'ma do what I want, fuck an option
Baby, you do what you want when you poppin'
Don't be a problem in my life, you solve it
Could be in hell, I'ma act like it's nada
I had to slow down, I ain't livin' for nothin'
No sound when you walk in the function
Those sounds, we been ridin' 'round bumpin'
Rollin' loud, I ain't smokin' for nothin'

On my mind, give a fuck if you get it or not
You'll find that you don't even know half the plot
I tried but only gave them half the shot
I'm fried but I don't even wonder why
On my mind, give a fuck if you get it or not
You'll find that you don't even know half the plot
I tried but only gave them half the shot
I'm fried but I don't even wonder why

It been a minute, my mind gone
DND straight to the dial tone
Get so fried, I can't tell if I'm high or low
We gettin' straight to them bands, lil' nigga
You see that shit if you're blindfolded
I could tell quick if you high or low
If you don't know, just know I know

Yeah
Don't make me play if you got no heart
I know you won't score, won't hop on the court
Don't know what you think, don't know what you thought
Forty-eight hours, forty-eight laws
I want the cash, you want diamonds and cars
Got a new whip, I don't stop when I'm off
Tellin' me you wanna do all this other shit
You gotta know the effects and the cause

Hit the blunt on the landing
Give a fuck what it's costin'
I just caught a PJ to Miami
So Nathasha like, "Damn, Tecca corporate"
Benjamin on them bands, we like family
Not with us, might as well go hit forfeit
I done seen shit, I'm like, "It can't be"
Never knew it would all just come to this

I'ma do what I want, fuck an option
Baby, you do what you want when you poppin'
Don't be a problem in my life, you solve it
Could be in hell, I'ma act like it's nada
