

Level Up

Lil Tecca

CHEK Beatz

And when I hit you I ain't have no intention
I was overly surprised when I received the message
But the way that things panned out, I low-key regret it
You looked the other side of me, my ego, you fed it
But when it came down to what happened, girl, you had your defenses
I had to separate from my mental offenses
It's a long road, baby, you can ride, hope you get it
And I know when you say you love me, that you meant it

Everything is levels (Is levels), so I had to level up, yeah (Had to level up)

You wan' join my rebels (My rebels), but they don't wanna start with us (Wantna start with us)

Got something you can't handle (Can't handle)

No, you don't want no war with us (Don't want no war with us)

No, you don't want no war with us (Don't want no war with us)

No, you don't want no war with us, yeah (Don't want no war with us)

Hopped off her, hopped in my bag

Pulled up in my new joint, I can see you mad

When you see me, hope you know what you lost, yeah

If you wanna talk, better pull up with caution

I can't see a ex girl, I don't do this often

You can switch teams if you gon' think 'bout where I been

Been applyin' pressure and I won't think 'bout stoppin'

Break 'em down, like that's the only option

Break 'em down, like that's the only option (Yeah)

Break 'em down, like that's the only option (Oh, woah)

Break 'em down, like that's the only option (Yeah)

She go down, just because I'm poppin'

And when I hit you I ain't have no intention

I was overly surprised when I received the message

But the way that things panned out, I low-key regret it

You looked the other side of me, my ego, you fed it

No, you don't want no war with us (Don't want no war with us)

No, you don't want no war with us, yeah (Don't want no war with us, nah)

Got something you can't handle

No, you don't want no war with us

No, you don't want no war with us

No, you don't want no war with us, yeah
